

"MARK YOUR DATE" on the Fort Collins Cat Rescue 2011 Calendar

Surprise family and friends by reserving that special date with a message just for them! Also great for pet birthdays and memorials, or just to remind yourself of someone's special day. Only ONE message will be allowed per date, so sign up soon to make sure you reserve yours dates now!

Cost is only $10 per entry, which allows for several messages if you'd like; holidays are not available. Deadline for entries is August 6th. Please be brief as wording is limited (no more than 35 characters, including spaces). Entry into photo contest is NOT necessary to reserve a date.

Calendars also make great Christmas presents, especially if that special someone is mentioned inside!

Please first e-mail Jen at jenjeeree1@yahoo.com to check that your date is still available.
